Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, November 21, 1999 - 9:30 a.m.

Be well aware of the brevity of life on Earth. The beings that are dear to you and those you appreciate will leave it one day or the other, and perhaps earlier than you can imagine. Take advantage of their presence. You should appreciate the moments of harmony with them as well as the qualities they have, while putting aside their small failings.

"See what is good in each one and help him, if need be, to develop the positive aspects which characterise him. Each individual is unique in his category, in his personality and his genes.

"Do not wait until certain beings have disappeared to express your love or your affection to them. The living are so often assailed by such regrets! Try not to make this kind of mistake any more.

"My son is arriving in Europe. Once more, he will do important work to help all the countries he will visit, and those not visited this time will receive what they need. Physically, he cannot go everywhere; this should not make you draw any erroneous conclusions.

"We will leave off here today; you have taken down this message under difficult conditions. We will let you rest and benefit from the treatment you have received."
