Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, December 28, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

Times will come when life will be difficult for all, particularly in certain countries of the world. Faith will be your only recourse.

The human being is helpless in the face of raging elements. Look at what is happening in the world and you will all see signs that herald great upheavals. They will not occur tomorrow. Nature has plenty of time, but one must prepare for them – even if it's only about undergoing the repercussions of an economic situation made difficult because of countries more particularly affected. Don't be afraid; a new era is beginning and it must go through a stage where the world has to transform itself through an in-depth cleaning.

True values must be rediscovered and human beings need to examine themselves so that future times are liveable for all.
