Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, January 4, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

May all this advice and these recommendations not annoy you. They come from a father who is concerned about his children. Before leaving them, he would like to tell them everything, to warn them, to protect them. We cannot spare you the pitfalls of life, only sensitize all of you to their treachery.

Advance while looking to the lighthouse; even in the dark night, it is there to guide you.

It is the Master's role to act in that way. Don't lose sight of him. Even in the most difficult moments, he is close to you – never forget it. This is a good comfort to have to avoid the reefs during a raging storm. Our comments must seem quite gloomy to you. In reality they are optimistic, since whatever happens, with Him you will all reach the harbour.
