Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, January 8, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

It is good to thank us for having chosen you as a medium; yes, it is a favour, but it's justified. We had to push you to make these messages known to a few trusted people around you, which has made it possible to give them shape by printing them.

We have always appreciated your discretion, but it was necessary to go beyond it so that these writings could find their true meaning. They now have their place, they exist, and the future will decide their destiny. When the moment comes, the holders will be inspired to make good use of them. Do remember that there must be collaboration so that the true meaning is respected in minute detail. We trust you on this point. Let time do its work, there is no pressure. These messages have their own life; they not only represent a teaching but their subtle vibrations touch hearts. You who are the first to benefit from them, you must all become aware of the changes taking place in you since you've been reading them; meditate well on this subject.
