Whispers from The Brighter World

With these messages, you all have at your disposal a rather special working tool. It is high time for this form of communication to be taken seriously, the difficulty being that few mediums are truly reliable. There is no quotation on the subject, and no reference on the Internet, as yet, which is preferable! As in many other fields, you should all beware of deceptions. Throughout the centuries, mediums have left serious information on the realities of the beyond.

Certain religions have put the snuffer on this practice, declaring it nothing less than diabolic, since anything that disturbs them can only be considered as such.

Nothing has changed in this regard, but enlightened minds are moving beyond, regardless.

Reading these messages with the heart, you will feel all the truth in them. It's normal, God wanting it so, that this mode of communication should help humanity. It will be needed in future times when humankind will find itself cut off from all that makes up today's civilization, which is completely mechanized and inhuman. Facing up to themselves, with their poor resources, people will have nothing left but to implore Divinity and its assistance, in all possible forms.
