Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, January 18, 2000 – 8:00 a.m.

Whether you believe it or not, you are indeed the spiritual person we talk about in these messages. Do not doubt, I implore you; you have to know how to be at ease with this kind of situation. Thinking that it is about someone else is good, to an extent. You must admit, what you have received is not ordinary; not doing so would be doubting us, as well as the divine graces that are bestowed where they ought to be. That many see you as an ordinary person is of no interest; you know what we think of human judgements.

Do not dwell on all that, what you acquire over time is more precious; the hidden treasures are all the more valuable. Even if you are not happy to note all this down, consider that you took, late in life, the commitment to write everything we say about you. If these comments bore the readers, it is easy to turn the page. Follow your path, my child; without you, these series would not exist and you would be depriving certain thirsty souls of words that can help them. Believe me, their simplicity will be able to touch the hearts that are ready to receive them.
