Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, January 21, 2000 – 8:00 a.m

Take up again some of those little phrases that have been sitting in your drawers. They are pearls that you all can add to the end of this 'Soaring'. Nothing that has been put aside must be lost, the rest has already 'taken flight'. Our scribe had no idea of what would become of it all.

An impressive number of messages have been taken down and represent a reserve that we are happy to offer you all. It is up to you to make good use of them. They too can remain in a drawer, or rather, thanks to the attention you give them, fructify in all of you and add to your capital. Remember Jesus' parable concerning the 'talents'. It is an allusion to the richness of the teaching he dispensed to his disciples from which some, wiser than others, derived great benefit. If the message of that Master who spoke of nothing but love and tolerance had been heard, the face of the world would be rather different.

What has become of that today? What have those who claim to speak in his name done? The evil cannot be erased, but there remain those who are still working in the right direction. They are chosen souls who work for the good of humanity.

Babuji