Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, January 22, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

Compared to the greatest number of individuals populating this Earth, you are fortunate in that you can be sure, when the time comes, of finding this lost companion you love so much. You will be able to resume your activities together again, possibly some missions, and relive this special relationship that was yours during the last years of his existence.

This union has been successful; your eternal soul bond enables you to communicate. Do not let yourself be overwhelmed by sadness, my child, even if you miss his presence infinitely. He protects you and watches over you like the most precious of gifts.

His love for you has evolved into a nobler dimension; your two souls vibrate in unison and nothing can separate them. Beyond physical trials, beyond a cataclysm on Earth, always possible, nothing will break this unfailing bond.
