Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, January 27, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

My son will appreciate the messages he is going to receive. Now that you are free, we can have more frequent exchanges of this kind.

It could be possible for him, for example, to ask questions on delicate subjects, and we would give him answers or confirmations. But let's not rush things. It is imperative that you rest.

We will come back to that.

Be at peace, nothing will be asked of you that is beyond your capabilities.
