Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, February 1, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

In these 'confidences', we will be able to express ourselves more freely, in a more concise way, and we won't have to consider the reactions of one another. The circle becomes a triangle, and we wish it to be so.

We know that Christianity is a sensitive subject, particularly in old Europe, still steeped in its taboos, such that guilt still reigns supreme, creating deep troubles. A true spiritual approach is beyond this. In our way, it is about cleaning, liberating and ensuring that your hearts open up to the beneficial rays of love. We ask you all to act in the right way for your own evolution and for the good of beings that you come in contact with. We are not there to judge, to absolve or to make you feel guilty.

We are not a religion and hope to never become one.

That is why we fear for the future. Human beings like to innovate, and deviations would be harmful to the simplicity of our system. May you all be vigilant on this point.
