Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, September 20, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

Keep trusting in us. In everything, trust is important; it creates positive waves. Whatever happens to you all in this incarnation, the essential is preserved and outlives this Earthly journey. It's comforting to know that efforts are not useless, that they are recorded and contribute to your rise in a lasting way.

You are not advancing in darkness and uncertainty, you who have chosen our spiritual path to meet your aspiration to transform yourself and make a success of your life. You are all guided from within the depths of your heart; a holy alchemy elevates you towards spheres unknown to you. They are liberating and they meet your needs. Your soul aspires to unite with the Divine; this attraction is irreversible. You are all on a luminous path and your Earthly life is urging you to go further. This hidden treasure gives meaning to your life; it gives pure joys that belong to you alone.

Never lose heart; keep faith in yourself, in your Masters, who know you and who help you in a way most favourable and appropriate for your aspirations. We will conclude with the same words: Keep trusting, no matter what happens to you.
