Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, February 2, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

The Medium: O Lalaji, may your light illuminate us and may Sahaj Marg illuminate the world.

Do not worry, my daughter; the flame of Sahaj Marg is not about to go out. The world of today needs it, but even far less than tomorrow's world. This means, so simple and within everyone's reach, is an infinite grace granted to humanity by the Almighty. In the terrible ordeals the Earth will have to undergo in the future, recourse to this true spirituality, pared-down and accessible to all, will be welcome.

You are the pioneers of this vast undertaking, and you must all be rigorous in your way of living this mystical experience.

That's the price you have to pay to fully benefit from it. No method is fruitful without effort.

May grace be upon you all on this exceptional day, as God wants it to be. Be in peace and strive to let peace prevail around you.

Lalaji

alaji was keen to manifest himself to you today. He follows your progress, my dear daughter, we will not insist any further.
