Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, December 13, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Forget, in these blessed moments, the ceaseless movement of life that surrounds you. Within you, in the heart of silence, are peace and harmony. These words, repeated over the years, create the ritual that connects your heart with ours and, by extension, to the hearts of all the abhyasis who read us.

They are blessed in this; we don't give these messages in vain, though this is not a 'literary' work, that's not our aim. Their action goes far beyond human appreciation. They are understood by all, and that is most important; each one interprets them in his or her own way and derives the necessary benefits from them. Over time, this celestial manna will remain a precious asset for our Mission. The Sahaj Marg path is a whole, efficient and productive of the very best, of that you can be sure. Beyond appearances lies 'reality', that which surpasses human understanding.

The messages are likewise retained and valued on other planes of consciousness, where a specific vibration emerges, one created by the union of reunited souls, of our faithful abhyasis who have chosen definitively, beyond this world, to unite and act in the service of our cause, that of a spiritual path much more active than it appears here below. To all our abhyasis, the best that can be, from our united hearts.
