Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, July 27, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

You are all fortunate to be among the privileged. We are not referring here to material goods, we are focused solely on the spiritual.

Despite all that remains for you to achieve, you belong to the 'good seed'. So you must forge ahead, without wasting time, in this incarnation.

You have no more excuses, your eyes are open to reality; you know the rules, it's up to you to respect them and to use them advisedly.

Life is like a battlefield: you see everything there. There are those who lose and those who win. It has been that way since the dawn of time, and by and large it is nowhere near changing profoundly.

We are working for that, but the mutation cannot happen with the wave of a magic wand.

Be conscious of the fragility of life; from one moment to the next, the best as well as the worst can happen to you. You can lose everything in an instant, in terms of your material goods and in your affections.

Cultivate tirelessly your spiritual capital. It is unassailable; no one can take it away from you. This asset is yours, it is intangible.

Never lose sight of this fact. It is reassuring for you all to know it.

Open your eyes to this aspect of life if you have not already done so.
