Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Friday, November 26, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

Your reunion on the Earth was long desired and planned. It was a meeting of souls, a beautiful love story, modest, not expressed, but very powerful. Not many human beings are privileged to experience that. It is the fruit of previous incarnations that has made your reunion possible in this one.

"You both are soul-mates for eternity. In today's joy, we wanted to confirm all this to you. You knew it already, but you also know that we believe in repetitions. They are never superfluous. Is your life not a long series of repeated acts time and again?

"Even if sometimes you find this process wearisome, you are caught in the movement and you cannot get out of it. You are conditioned to live this way. Even if sometimes your life seems monotonous to you, there is something reassuring in this repetitive movement.

"Suddenly cutting yourself off from all your habits would be disorienting. You can see that actually all has its raison d'être and that chance does not exist. Be always grateful for the fate reserved for you; whatever it is, it is planned for your good."
