It was important for your relationship with my son to evolve. You know how important the role of the living Master is; we've sufficiently addressed this topic. It's imperative that your journey continue under his high protection and vigilance, in complete union with him.

Know how to appreciate the fact of having a spiritual Master of his stature; it's a rare opportunity in a lifetime. Make the most of all the treasures he allows each of you to acquire; not all searching souls have this possibility.

One day, you will all realize how lucky you've been; therefore be grateful and don't waste time.

A spiritual way is fraught with pitfalls; there comes a time, in this journey, when the great competence of a highly evolved being is necessary. The more you advance, the more imperative the support of this guide becomes. He spares you the pitfalls, the wasted time, the restless wandering that would not lead you directly to the sought-after goal.

Believe us, we know what we're talking about and what your needs are. We want only what's best for you all, and we offer an effectiveness apt to satisfy your noblest aspirations, since they're aimed at Divine Realization, for which we are all working here, for the good of humanity.
