Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, September 5, 2001 – 8:30 a.m.

This is how we like to see you, the heart full of Love and compassion for your Master. His role is not as easy as abhyasis believe. He must face all the negative aspects resulting from his position.

Human beings complicate everything; they criticize, they judge, they extrapolate, and many other expressions of their character are to be considered in this matter.

They believe his position is one of total rest and do not see that the work, the worries inherent in the importance of his mission, represent great fatigue for a man of his age. All this relates to material work and is added to the spiritual work where he knows how to give his best. The latter requires time and energy and knows no rest.

So, my dear daughter, your assessments concerning his physical and moral state are right, you can send him thoughts full of Love and worry about his health. You are yourself in a difficult situation in this aspect and you can understand him.

You have all our blessings.
