When will humans understand that only Love can save the world?

This word is so often overused, distorted or cautiously used, even in a spiritual way like ours. This concept is misunderstood, abstract; it cannot be proved by a rational explanation. Only a completely open and receptive heart can feel its benefits.

A true spiritual journey can only lead to it and intensely put it into practice.

It is the only food for the soul, which relishes it. It must be sought and nurtured carefully.

It is the supreme refuge. As God is Love, it is inseparable from faith, and without it, faith cannot truly flourish.

We can never extol it enough; in these troubled times for the world, one can only note how desperately it is lacking in humans.

The great revelation will be the conquest of hearts through Its unique force, since it is the highest expression of the Divine. It is little known and poorly understood, since hearts are not ready and willing to receive it.

This conquest will take place. It will take time, but for God nothing is impossible.

You who are open to its effects, who are longing to be only Love, surrender and compassion – cultivate this force within yourselves dearly. Let it grow and completely imbue your heart, that is what we wish for you, with our blessings.
