Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, August 3, 2001 – 8:00 a.m.

All these perfidious attacks affect my son deeply, all the more as they come from some of our associates. The worm is in the fruit and can easily get to the core.

Targeting the Master is a base and vile action. These beings should not expect any clemency from us, their acts must be paid for, it's in the order of things. Let us pity the traitors, the cowards capable of such behaviour and let us pray to help them to overcome the evil that drives them.

Let us all together turn towards the light, it is there, intangible and reliable. It soothes the souls thirsty for its splendour. It attracts them and channels this aspiration, which becomes strength and action.

The energy of love is powerful, it traces a waterway in a desert, so that one day a lush vegetation can replace the shifting dunes and mirages represented by the forces of evil degrading humanity.
