Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, December 17, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

Open yourself more and more to the Divine Splendour, broaden your horizon to the limits of what is possible in this world, with a heart open to grace. May these words serve as an open sesame and a secret ritual, in the presence of divinity. Your soul yearns for these moments of communion that plunge the being to the brink of inexpressible peace. Life takes on a whole new meaning when it's built harmoniously in these spaces of high spirituality. All of our discourse aims to lead our brothers and sisters to this obvious fact; their approach goes in this direction, it's the whole point of their perseverance.

Uniting with the Divine brings about a fusion of the various subtle bodies, vibrating harmoniously and thereby accelerating the process of evolution; hence the need for continual repetition.

We can't stress this point enough – knowing how to set aside time during the day dedicated to meditative practice is the best way to achieve this union. These rituals shape the whole of spiritual life and, over time, bring the greatest delight.

There are no more thrilling moments in life than when the soul reveals itself in all its splendour. These moments are unique, they mark the entire search; this quest for the Absolute cannot be described, so intense does it become. May all our brothers and sisters experience a similar ardour to surpass themselves, going beyond the useless towards the Immutable Splendour, the sublime destination of every soul, which must, sooner or later, and inevitably, unite with the Divine.

Babuji