Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, November 30, 1999 - 7:30 a.m.

We will be brief today. My son is happy; our 'ambassador' has fulfilled his mission successfully. We could not have made a better choice; in the various areas where we appeal to him, he is the right man. Not only does he speak perfectly, but he also knows how to touch hearts.

"Your Master will set off again and continue his European tour. He is very satisfied; it is all going on well. This visit, once again, is important; he gives priority to his travel choices. It is not about pleasing such-and-such a person or country. His motivations are of a higher nature and should not be interpreted, like some of you used to do.

"A Master's life does not align itself with the current society. He does his work and bases his activities on other criteria.

"Your children-in-heart will remember this meeting, and yet they cannot assess its full scope."
