Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, August 31, 2013 – 10:00 a.m.

The divine laws are absolutely precise and cannot be circumvented, therefore everything is to be considered. Thought is an act, and the actions that follow are not inconsequential. Everything, without exception, is recorded in the ledgers of time. Are our abhyasis fully aware of this? It is time to be concerned about it. We do not want to be moralistic, but certain consequences are serious here, so we are insisting on this point. Following a spiritual path is a good thing, and certain behaviours should be avoided. The laws of karma are extremely vigilant, hence this warning. Human nature is what it is; following a spiritual way helps in overcoming one's tendencies and expanding one's potential, which is the real asset of the seeker. Here, we are working to bring out the very best in each one. Our aspirants are not saints. Saints themselves have had to struggle with their own weaknesses. No human being is perfect; all are on the way, with varying degrees of aptitude to advance towards perfection.

We want to draw the attention of all our brothers and sisters to this aspect of life; it is highly important. May each and every one pay attention to this fact and observe, however little it may be, their behaviours, thoughts, and actions, which – as we just noted above – are very decisive. We want the best for everyone in this Mission, therefore may these remarks find a favourable response and bear fruit for the good of the entire Sahaj Marg Mission, under our blessings.
