Wednesday, April 30, 1997 – 10:00 a.m.

Birthday of Babuji

The Medium: "Beloved Babuji, please change my heart!"

The transformation of your heart hinges on your body's transformation. Endure with patience; you are working for your own eternity. I monitor your steps and your progress. I carry you in my heart to alleviate your burden, but I cannot do the work for you. It is your work; it is your 'masterpiece'. I give you the materials and you build on them...

"I am touched by your love which inclines me to every weakness towards you. You are my blessed child, never forget it. I will keep telling you this. Look towards the goal; forget the brambles on which you are walking, look up towards the light. Advance in my love, the goal is not far away; until the end your eyes will have to follow me, I will not take mine off you.

"Be in peace and joy during this holiday, despite everything.

"I do not forget my daughter Francoise. She should not slacken; her progress is important, she has my blessing. You should all be united, slacken neither in action nor in faith. I love you, my children; thank Chantal for her dedication toward you.

"Blessings!"

Babuji