Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, August 1, 2002 – 10:00 a.m.

Your two hearts, united in divine Love, let them express all their joy.
Be more and more united with your Master; knowing that you are understood and helped is comforting.

Reaching this degree of surrender is a grace. There is no need for complicated formulas to describe an unexplainable state; it is lived intensely and has its source in the depths of the Being.

Reason has nothing to do with this exaltation of the soul; it originates from very far back in time.

This stage being reached, it becomes superfluous to ask oneself questions. It is enough to let oneself be carried by this unique force and to advance with confidence.

All the answers to the questions that might still arise are to be found in the human heart. It is all simple; God is everything. He encompasses all and He is inside you. One's approach to Him is carried out in the greatest simplicity, with the heart of a child, a peaceful mind in spareness and surrender.

Only this way can lead to the truth for anyone seeking it through an intellectual process. It puts one on the right track, but the most important thing remains to be done. A whole secret alchemy is at work, unbeknownst to human reasoning. It is good to nourish it in various ways, but in the final analysis, other criteria come into the picture to facilitate the journey of a searching heart.

May you all practise with fervour, love your Master, follow him in the way he shows you; he is your divine guide.
