Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, February 16, 2002 – 10:00 a.m.

Feel yourself always closer to your Master, through the heart and the thoughts emanating from this kind of mystical union. A moment will come in the journey of the aspirant when this concept must develop. It does not take place by command; only a true impulse from the heart can foster it. The bonds between the Master and the truly motivated disciple are of a special nature. There is no equivalent in human relationships, which refer to another level. This relationship must be kept alive with a divinely inspired love that is unequalled. God leads chosen souls on paths hidden from human eyes; each soul has its own process.

There could not be uniformity in this area; the divine power is great and the paths they follow are marked with a special seal, which distinguishes them from one another.

A human is no more and no less than a particle, powered by the omnipotence of the cosmic engine. It lives and is part of this huge plan, animated by a breath, the power of which the most enlightened scientist cannot imagine.

Human beings who become aware of their extreme smallness should praise the Creator for giving them the opportunity to evolve and not complain about their fate.
