Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, May 30, 2004 – 10:00 a.m.

To my son, the collection of these messages constitutes a treasure. They all exist with one sole aim: to help our brothers and sisters. You have full latitude to act accordingly; the decisions regarding their disclosure are yours. It is for you to decide the right moment for their publication. There is no disadvantage in being limited to the pure and traditional teaching of our way. The way in which these messages are given may surprise some of our brothers and sisters, however this is part of a tradition that is not new. They all must evolve in the direction of history of the world whose change is in the offing. Our medium never wished to do anything other than remain in the shadows; she is not interested in being in the forefront. She serves us with as much love and surrender as possible, as far as the messages are concerned. They will represent a critical contribution to our Mission. Times are changing; the Mission must be in tune and answer the questions of our aspirants, whose numbers will continue to grow.

You are leading this Mission, my son, masterfully; how else could we say that! It is sometimes amazing to see you acting and exhibiting your faculties in managing problems. Your experience is invaluable in many circumstances where it is advisable to not be misled by appearances. Our way must stick to what it is fundamentally, without any kind of addition that would distract our brothers and sisters from the intended goal. This point is crucial: to open the door to what does not relate to it would do it a disservice.

These messages will enrich our teaching; people's minds are opening up and it is advisable to go in that direction. We are by your side, my very dear son; you overwhelm us with your courage, unfailing in the face of difficulties and the burden of your workload.

Our very special blessings accompany you. Let your heart be reassured: all is well.

Babuji Maharaj