Monday, April 17, 2000 – 8:30 a.m.

Know that being in the service of the Divine is a permanent work that never ends. Earth, as well as other planets, pursues its trajectory tirelessly. The same is true for the entire creation. Rest and satisfaction come from service well done. Imagine a human system with holidays, strikes and claims of all sorts. It would be anarchy. Where would the universe be headed with such processes? It's a characteristic unique to people of the Earth.

Would your heart stand a disruption in this divine and sublime contact which makes it live? You can't imagine it. It has become essential to your life, and you have offered yours for Him to use it as He pleases.

The Venerable