Beloved Master

Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, June 7, 1999 – 8:20 a.m.

The Medium: I am waiting for my Beloved, he is not coming, where is he hiding?

I will never hide from you. Until the end of your life, I will be present at your side, when needed.

If you do not have the joy of seeing my son, can you content yourself with my presence?

The Medium: O Babuji, a thousand times yes! You represent everything for me.

We have already addressed so many topics, do you believe we should continue, do they want to keep hearing the same things, or do they take our comments as blessings and seeds, which germinate and grow within them?

Should we take a break for them? For you?

The Medium: For me? You know well that I will go to the end of my strength to try to convey your teaching. Nothing else is important in my life anymore.

We know it and we cherish you for that.

Our relationship, which is a rather particular one, shows your circle that, medium or not, one can isolate oneself, calm one's mind and unite with us in the silence of the heart.

The same dialogue does not occur as that between us two, but all should know that, with time and diligent practice, they must eventually arrive at a certain vibratory union and a satisfactory contact.

The purpose of all that has been said in the past few days, with insistence, was to encourage them to reach this interiorization. Obtained with faith and humility, it will allow them to unite themselves with the inner Master. He will open to them doors of communication onto other spaces.

You must all remember these messages and try to understand all the subtlety.

For you, now, this is somehow as if we were speaking of another planet, of a completely unknown Earth where you could never set foot.

Don't be mistaken, prepare yourselves to become astute and courageous explorers.

Rid yourselves of useless burdens. Re-examine your lives carefully, consider your priorities, we will respect them.

We will be happy to see you advancing with confidence and lightness, having purified your life of all that is superfluous.

You will be ready for the most beautiful of journeys, in our company.
