Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, March 2, 2000 – 9:00 a.m.

From now on, your heart is a palace inhabited by a great king. Don't let just anyone or anything enter it. Avoid polluting thoughts and images unfavourable for the purity of the place. Be very vigilant on this point. You now have responsibility with respect to that new state. As often as possible, raise your thoughts above the ugliness of life. Let nothing grave disturb this special relationship. Fix your thought on us as much as possible. Our relationship will be fruitful, you are henceforth advancing on a luminous way, don't forget that. We are very happy about this, my dear child.

Babuji

(Medium's note: I had asked about my current condition.)