Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Do not worry about respecting the schedule; there are requirements that you must respect, like that of receiving a sitting; it is another way of communicating with us.

"The work of the prefects is admirable; it requires some sense of abnegation. Attending to a great number of abhyasis takes much time and patience, sometimes.

"Working for the Master requires some sacrifices; it is a choice to be made with full knowledge of the facts. It is a kind of vocation. Make sure you do not see any special distinction in the fact of being selected as a prefect; it is a service being asked of you.

"To be in Master's service is an opportunity given to you and which must make you humble. On no account should it flatter your ego. You should learn how to appreciate it at its true worth.

"Playing an active role in a movement of this scale is a grace; serving one's fellow man is another one. It is up to you to use it as well as possible if you are concerned.

"Your being an abhyasi benefits the Mission as well as yourself."
