(Sitting with M-C)
Her comment afterwards: "It is beautiful, it is great, Master is inside you. There is nothing else to do or say."
She didn't know about my experience of the day before. She said to me: "You should note that in your diary."
I have no diary, but given the confirmation obtained through her comment, I take note and I start to believe in it.

Yes, my child, we have your heart at our disposal, you can rejoice. Even if your everyday life is not transformed, what is taking place within you is a great grace that you are receiving. Try to really become aware of it; you can give thanks for the present given to you.
