Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, December 8, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

In certain circumstances, a mystic must let himself be 'carried away' without trying to control the situation, which is what you are trying to do most of the time. It is imperative that you mend your ways. Your Cartesian mind always stands sentry; you should also let go of this aspect. On the spiritual level you do not belong to yourself any more, therefore, especially in these moments, you should be completely surrendered.

"What have you got to lose? You have had faith in us for a long time; therefore, you should realise that part of yourself escapes you more and more and that it must lead its own life, if we can express ourselves like that.

"You cannot be said to be whimsical and living in dreams; observers can see in this irrefutable fact the weight carried by the work you are doing for us.

"One must be strong to be a good medium; there are limits not to be overstepped and your balance is very precious to us.

"My dear child, we put you in the hot seat, once again, and you do not like that. Your reaction to the 8:00 a.m. message is groundless. It must appear in its place with the others; that is the way it goes, that is all."
