Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, March 14, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

Plunge into yourself, my child, forget this hubbub*; come and gather these pearls of purity we place there, and revel, far from the world and the noise, in this sublime vibration.

Is there any better escape than to enjoy this blessed place?

Let yourself be carried away by these harmonious waves that lift your heart. Human beings have yet to discover the wonders this organ conceals. It is like a safe filled with values that can't be deciphered by beings who don't have the 'code'. They live with a veritable treasure within them, and most are incapable of fully utilizing it.

Continue in this way; go further and further towards detachment, and bathe with delight in this miraculous source.

Babuji

* Demonstration of strikers under the windows.