Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, December 9, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, do you realise the progress made since the beginning of the first series? Each one of you, in your own way, has made a sizeable progress inwardly. If we quote certain names more than others, it is for the purpose at hand. You all belong to this movement, each having different roles, but that does not matter; nobody is forgotten. You should think in terms of a group, and not in terms of an individual who, as far as he is concerned, must melt into and let himself be led by what you all represent together.

"At the spiritual level, the rewards come by themselves. There is no preference. Some people are on the frontline, others remain behind the scenes, but all are important and are not forgotten.

"We think that this is worth pointing out to you, although through your work and ours you have earned enough wisdom and discernment to understand what we believe we should better remind you about, in spite of everything.

"The road is long; you must advance without bothering yourself with inevitable human reactions, which can overload your luggage unnecessarily."
