Let me grow inside you and organize your life to my liking. You will only be pleased with it.

Be in utmost surrender, do not resist. You are going through an extraordinary experience that doesn't seem at all rational according to your Earthly views. These views are often distorted by the interpretations of certain 'scientists' who are completely mistaken. Our rules are based on a niche of pure mathematics – but you are indifferent to this aspect.

Be more and more in the childhood of the heart, a precious tool of the Divine.

Don't ask yourself too many questions. Let yourself live, carried by our love and detached from the unnecessary.

Be at peace.
