Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 8, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

Don't worry about your literary talent. The interest of these messages lies elsewhere. Let's not revert to your interventions; we have expressed ourselves on the subject. We use a simple style, accessible to everyone and capable of touching hearts: this is the purpose of the operation.

The truth is accessible to all, on condition one doesn't let oneself be dragged into the meanders of the intellect. A true spiritual process brings the most scholarly beings back to simplicity. To immerse oneself in the divine presence does not require anything else but total surrender of the humanly-constructed personality. 'Become like small children again' means just that. To have access to the Immutable, to communicate within one's self with the Divine, is to disregard what you are, to allow yourself to forge a heart worthy of seeing its true nature blossom, reshaped according to our criteria. We do not ask you to lose this personality acquired through upbringing and education. We only expect you all to put things in perspective and focus on the main thing: the goal, that is to say going back to bare essentials, love and trust in your Masters, who have the power to propel you to the highest level. There are choices to make; one should know what one wants and offer oneself to the Divine, if such is the aspiration of the soul which, in the final analysis, must prevail. Think about it.
