Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, April 27, 2000 – 8:00 a.m.

You ask in your prayers to serve us as per our wish. What are we doing at the moment? We are using your gifts, it is there that you excel. They are also useful in a less concrete way, in a very different area.

Never have the feeling that you are useless. When you take stock of your life, you will see how much, in spite of your physical limitations, you have worked for the good of others. Be completely reassured on this point.

We all make mistakes on this Earth, it is inevitable, but the main thing is that the scales tip towards the good side, towards our positive achievements.

Continue in the same attitude of mind: service first, giving satisfaction to the higher authorities.

Be at peace, approach the birthday of your Beloved in the serenity in which he loves to see you, continuing on the path you still have to travel before rejoining him.
