Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, August 4, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

Do not forget, any of you, that spiritual work must never stop. It is endless, we've said it already. On this path, there is no 'paid leave'. You reap what you sow and it's better not to waste time. All this you have understood, and practising our method has become essential to your existence.

Do you imagine yourselves going back in time and not taking into account a spiritual process? We think it would be singularly lacking in your balance on all levels. Breath is necessary for your body, and your soul very deeply calls for its own. When it starts opening up to the Divine, the process is irreversible. It never ceases to progress, at its own pace, under the beneficial rays of love. Such is the law in this area.

When a door is opened, the flow of 'life' runs through it, insinuating itself into the meanders of the heart. This heart, ready for all battles, must fight against the many hindrances that will inevitably arise. In this work, you must all face up to things and forge ahead courageously with the help of your Masters, who never lose sight of you. May these ceaseless repetitions deeply motivate you.

Babuji