Think that you are not rivetted to your physical body and that you are making incursions to other planes, even if this activity is not conscious. Our contacts are made by way of these messages, which serve as intermediaries between the two worlds.

For the time being, stop wondering. You have set out on a long voyage that must lead to its home port.

Let yourself be carried along by events, rather than trying to rationalize.

Take your inspiration from the sages of the past – and there is no shortage of them in the present either – who accept without trying to understand why they are different from others. Most often ignored, misunderstood, they follow their star, without batting an eye, relying on God for everything.

Divest yourself of useless aspects, don't be constantly disturbed by everyday events; they are of no importance.

May your boat glide over the waves, guided only by the Divine Master.
