Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, December 12, 1999 - 8:30 a.m.

You are not a machine; do you believe that this delay can prevent our contact from taking place? We ask for rigour, but not to that extent.

"It is true that we insist on the need for automatic reflexes to be established, and though it is beneficial to always meditate at the same hour, other possibilities are not excluded.

"We are amused by your child-like and timorous side. Your personality presents many facets: that is what those who can understand and appreciate you find charming in you. We do not want to bother you by talking about you once again.

"Our purpose is to make you understand, for your own good, the importance of rigour in your life. It is good to be demanding with oneself, generally, but some exceptions can disrupt the regularity of your sadhana, and you have to put up with it, which is not dramatic.

"Since we lived our human lives on the Earth, we understand you.

"Though we try to push you towards perfection, we also know how difficult it is sometimes.

"We do not judge you, we love you and we want the best for you all, quite simply."
