Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, August 21, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

As regards communication with my son, all will fall into place slowly, but in a constructive way.

It will happen naturally, we will not put you in embarrassing situations; he will be able to read between the lines. Have no fear, he will express interest and will appreciate the discretion of the system.

Far-reaching spiritual paths in certain areas of the world have all, at some moment in their history, had to fight to survive. It will be no different for the Shri Ram Chandra Mission as it too is destined to spread throughout the world. It will go through times when it is strong, and others when it will temporarily have to remain in the background – this is in the order of things. It is part of the eternal movement which drives humans in their most significant struggles to make humanity change. We will revert to these topics. Advancing one day at a time, in surrender and trust, is still the best formula. The higher authorities act at their level and they inspire our representative on Earth. Be patient all of you, life continues and nothing will stop it, not even human beings, who in their sometimes demented behaviour cannot prevent the wheel from turning. Be blessed and continue on your path, full of hope and love.
