Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, December 12, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

Being so close to me, you could only attract His attention, what could be more natural than that? You see well that we accept you for what you are. We feel tenderness for you because you can recognise your weaknesses.

"So many human beings believe they are perfect and assume the right to judge others for no reason at all, to a pathological extent. They had better look at their own garden and focus seriously on the weedy grasses therein, before dwelling on their neighbour's.

"You can see that if we speak to you so often, it is sometimes as a pretext to arrive at general remarks.

"We repeated it enough to you, all has its raison d'être. Each one of you is a case for us, we observe you and we surround you carefully. What gardener is so equally attentive? Do you realise that you are constantly under observation?

"You are never alone, whether you are happy or unhappy. We do not take our eyes off you."
