Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, August 23, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

Your Master, he too, is rapidly advancing towards the goal we wish both of you to reach, in other words a true communication which will be beneficial to all.

It was not easy to convince you, but with time we have managed.

It has required humility on his part to admit this process that is frustrating for him. That is how things are, there is no need to dwell on it; he is the Master, you are a medium and he is not. At first sight, the situation is not comfortable, but that does not matter, since through this means we can send him written messages that he can reread as he pleases.

Our contacts with him on other planes do not provide him with anything like this; it is another way of communicating with him. Our dedicated translators and the modern means at your disposal make things easier.

You will both get accustomed to this situation and will end up finding it natural. This way, all will become even easier. You will capture better and better his need and the response we will give you.

Divested of your doubts and fear of not satisfying us, you will become a first-rate messenger.

You have to get used to it, my dear daughter; you did not ask for anything, but we chose you. Be blessed, continue to love us and serve us.
