Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, August 25, 2000 – 11:00 a.m.

For your perceptions to remain as they are, we must continue to transmit to you regularly. We can slow down to tire you less, which we are doing at the moment. You must keep yourself in form physically in spite of your sufferings, in order to remain in a state acceptable for you and be capable of doing this work that is important for us, as you know. You serve as our relay; few mediums have this true receptiveness, and the channel is perfect for what we expect of you. It has taken all these years for the system to become effective and be accepted on both sides with my son.

As always, time does its work, nothing escapes this law. The main thing is that you maintain this state of refined channelling and that your heart remains attentive to our expectations and wishes.

We help you as much as possible; spare yourself, we love you.
