Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, September 17, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

This teaching of a spiritual Master through a medium is unprecedented in the history of great beings who marked their time. It happened for me with Revered Lalaji, as well as other great souls, but the conditions were different, since from the outset I was his disciple and his designated successor.

These messages will reach a wider audience; they are accessible to all, since each person can recognize themselves in you.

Do not begin to get entangled in doubt; you are distorting the communication.

What you achieve in your practice is easy to do. You have come very far and, over time, what has brought you to this enviable level has developed in you. It is within anyone's reach through perseverance, unwavering faith and unconditional love. Your heart, in its simplicity, has managed to touch mine; how could one resist being touched by such a state of surrender? There is no need to achieve feats. There are side roads that are at least as effective as a royal road.

Doors open for you if you humble yourself, offer your love with all humility without expecting anything in return. These means are within your reach; it's up to you to make choices and advance towards the goal.

We are nearing the end of this long series of messages; if you have the courage to read them, they will help you by bringing you towards simplicity and sincerity.
