Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, October 12, 2000 – 10:00 a.m.

The human being often ventures on tortuous paths before taking the right direction.

This is a human characteristic; a person must find their way after many experiences, sometimes painful. This is how the personality is forged, which leads each one to seek a truth that starts to be obvious to them. A person feels this lack that comes from a life centred on materialism.

Their deepest being is in need; they aspire to fill this void through a pursuit and an understanding that can satisfy them.

That is the start of a quest that can bring a person to the highest level, if their aspiration is strong enough. Each one receives what they are able to receive.

A sincere and constant call must be made so that it can be heard, and then the way will open up before that person and will be adapted to their level of evolution.

Perhaps they will reach us. Do you realize how lucky you are? To be on a path with few constraints, which makes you advance without requiring great efforts, is this not a grace?

There is every hope for you, if you take your work to heart. We do everything possible to meet your expectations. We see the heart of your hearts and they receive according to their capacity.

(5:00 p.m., in meditation.)

It is necessary to answer evil with love. Sahaj Marg is entering a new era whose effects will not be felt immediately.

Its strength will manifest itself more and more in the future.
