Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, October 25, 2000 – 8:00 a.m.

It is true that the history of countries and races includes many mysteries. The truth on this point also escapes the people of your time. The karmic laws are unavoidable. Races that were dominating in very far distant times are suffering the same fate in this current cycle. That's how it is.

In the future, White people will experience that to which they are subjecting the beings they consider inferior.

This law is extremely rigorous. It is fair return, and so it will always be. Humanity's karma must be purified in that way.

Nothing happens without reason. What you all call chance is the best tool at the disposal of human beings, in that it places them in situations that enable them to fulfil their destiny.

The Black race, which has passed from the state of dominance into that of the dominated, will again become a powerful race in a distant future, and so on.

May wisdom one day reign on this Earth for the good of all those who populate it, whatever the colour of their skin.
