Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, December 15, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

Sulochana said it well: it is a real joy for us to be able to communicate with him this way, through you. My son feels alone and is going through difficult moments of lassitude. After all these years of effort, this is a human and actually normal reaction on his part. He is out of the ordinary and he must assume his daily responsibilities with all their underlying material and spiritual aspects.

"The message he will receive for the end of this year will give him great comfort.

"Although we surround him with all possible love, he must face up, alone, to his destiny.

"Like any incarnate being, he cannot escape it. Small or big, whatever the role you have to play, that is the way it goes; you must see your duty through.

"Whether you chose this incarnation or not, the result is the same; there is no question of backtracking.

"With regard to the suppression of your intervention from yesterday's message, that is out of the question! You are not a robot and it is normal to exchange some comments with the entities you are in liaison with."
