Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, October 27, 2000 – 8:00 a.m.

This collection of 'Reflections' will return to most of the topics dealt with in the whole set of messages. We will go into greater depth on some important points. You would all like us to go further in the 'Revelation', but this is not our objective. We have gone to the main thing. You can all read specialized books that can satisfy your intellects.

Our centre of interest in this context is you. We want to make you all aware of your own reality, of what you must do for your own conquest.

Towards that end, nothing is useless.

If you take the trouble to read these messages, it means that you deeply aspire to advance and your open-mindedness is sufficient to not put you off. If you adhere to what we say, this reading will inevitably make you progress.

The true way is not in tempting revelations, descriptions of worlds beyond and the complexity of creation. You can find all that in a certain literature.

Our wish is that each of you make this adage yours: 'know thyself'. Go deep into the smallest folds of your own being, keep a check on yourself, improve and sanctify yourself. That's the secret: that is the objective to attain.
