Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, November 3, 2000 – 8:00 a.m.

Sahaj Marg won't save the world, but its contribution will be significant. It is currently a limited movement. Others began in such small proportions and they have dominated the world; to each era, what suits it best.

Human beings change, minds open up to knowledge. Taboos maintained by religions are lifting. The beginning of this century is a pivotal time; a new era begins, full of contradictions and violence.

No major change occurs without the latter. It seems that these are the rules established here below.

As far as you are concerned, it is up to you to be a living example of what well-led spiritual conduct can bring.

Sahaj Marg transforms beings very profoundly and almost without them knowing. Do they really realize this? It seems not. They would need to go backwards suddenly and compare. They can't do it; what they are currently living has become second nature, and as such, it is not so easy to do. But that is the fact of the matter, positive and definite.
